RULES: All families must be a paid 2009 member ($50) of the Heartland Limousin Association to show. All cattle must have a registration paper, or Lim-Flex paper with a valid health paper in hand at check-in. Jr. Exhibitors must be American Limousin Jr. Association members of the NALF, own their own cattle (2008 bulls—may sell up to 50% ownership, but the Jr. must retain possession) and have cattle transferred in their name by May 1, 2009. Cow-calf entries—this is one entry, calves may not be shown separately. Lim-Flex, follow the MOE & NALJA rules, animal age requirements are the same, must be registered Lim-Flex and have a purple paper to show. Fitting is optional but not mandatory.

NO SWEEPSTAKES points will be gathered this year, we would like to encourage all Jrs. to participate in the activities available to build friendships, have a great time and gain leadership qualities for use in their life. This Jr. show will comply with all NALJA rules in 2009.

ENTRIES: Entry fees are $25 per head by May 1 postmark (includes a show shirt) There is a $10 per head bedding fee but chips will be provided. Bring your own straw for tie-outs. Late entry fee is $30 at check-in. Please send entries to: North American Limousin Foundation, 7383 Alton Way, Suite 100, Centennial, CO 80112-2339 (Attn: Kate Maher).
